General Information Please Read Carefully

- A detailed agenda will be available online at www.ncsta.net after January 1st and you will receive an agenda when you arrive at the convention. The detailed agenda will list credit hours available for each class.
- There will be a tracking sheet in the detailed agenda for you to use to assure you get all the credit hours you need for each certification and/or permit you hold.
- Each attendee will need to sign the Master Attendee Sheet each day. The Master Attendee Sheets will be placed outside the exhibit hall in order by last name. You only need to sign once each day. Attendees will need to sign the Master Sheet when they arrive at the convention. During each class you will be given a card for that class. Cards are distributed once during each class YOU MUST BE IN THE CLASSROOM to receive the attendance card. Rules prevent any attendee not in the classroom a minimum of 85% of the class time from receiving credit for the class. Attendees should place the attendance cards in their attendance envelopes. Remember to turn in your attendance envelope at the end of each day.
- Attendance certificates for credit hours will be issued after you have completed the required hours. These certificates must be picked up in the exhibit hall before you leave the center DUPLICATES AT A LATER DATE ARE NOT AVAILABLE.
- Special note to Installers and Inspectors: The person holding the certification from NCOWCICB must be the person taking the credit hours
