

Mission Statement

To advance the standards of the onsite wastewater industry in North Carolina and to create uniform rules for the protection of the environment, the public health and the investment of North Carolina citizens;

To establish a network of communication with its members and allied organizations and agencies;

To establish a relationship with the legislative and regulatory authorities that promotes the protection and the advancement of all aspects of onsite wastewater industry and septage disposal;

To inform and educate the people of North Carolina as to the value and sustainability of onsite wastewater systems and septage disposal;

To protect and advance sound technology and sound ecological practices in the establishment of regulations for all individuals involved in the onsite wastewater and septage disposal industry.